BOX HILL CAPTAIN-COACH FAREWELLED

Andy McCulloch Departs for Scotland

The Doncaster Hotel on May 9 was the scene of an occasion that was tinged with some regret when a farewell dinner was given to Andy McCulloch, the captain-coach of Box Hill, on his departure for Scotland.

Some 58 guests sat down to a dinner, and the President of the Box Hill club, Mr. J. Knibbs, told the assembled company of the part that had been played by Andy in pulling Box Hill from the relegation zone three seasons ago, of how by his methods of training and encouragement to the younger players, Andy had thus done so much for the Box Hill club.

Amidst sustained applause, Andy, he said had earned a name for himself in the history of Box Hill Soccer Club that would never be forgotten.

On behalf of the Club, the President then presented Andy with the club blazer of the Box Hill Soccer Club, together with the sincere wishes for his future and the assurance that if and when Andy returned to Box Hill, he would be there to meet him.

Andy, in reply, said that his memories of Box Hill Club and the very many friends he had made would always be pleasant ones. He appealed to the players to play the game as it should be played—clean and hard football; to the junior players for intensive training.

He sincerely thanked the club for the blazer, and finally introduced his successor as captain-coach, Angus Drennan, another Scot. Angus, he said, would do so much to carry on the job that he had started.

Angus Drennan then replied, stating that Andy had indeed set up a standard that would be hard to improve, but he was sure that with the full co-operation of all, Box Hill Club would again rise to even greater standards of play.

Also present was Mr. J. Paul, of the Victoria Soccer Council, who spoke of the respect that Andy had acquired among those who had had the pleasure of his friendship. He had been a worthy ambassador of the game, and he wished Andy all the very best in the future.

Musical honours were then given to Andy, to the strains of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and the Scottish element among the company gave a fine rendering of "Will ye no come back again?"

The opportunity was taken later to introduce to the company "Miss Soccer," in the person of Miss Valma Sanders, the nominee of the Box Hill Club in the Miss Australia Olympics Competition, in whose honour a dance will be held on Tuesday, May 19, at the East Burwood Hall, East Burwood from 8 p.m. till midnight. Admission will be 4/-, and a top-line band will provide the music for a splendid evening.

PLEASANT SUNDAY AFTERNOONS

Sunday International Matches

The Sunday Internationel "World Cup Series," which resumed on 3rd May, again holds promise of exciting and thrilling football, and in some game goals galors to satisfy the most avid of Soccer fans.

A glance at to-morrow's matches (May 17), Austria v. Yugoslavia, plus Italy v. England, reveals such a wealth of football talent, that I am tipping a record attendance being established for a Melbourne Soccer game. But followers of the Grand Old Game will be watching for the clever and scintillating footwork of the artists who will combine to make up the sides for to-morrow's games.

Austria will have in their line-up quality men like sharpshooter Miers, and Neuhold (late of Vienna Rapide F.C.), both of these from Hakoah Club, plus Engelbogen, of Polonia. Remember that beautiful goal against J.U.S.T. last week—a perfect lob, which completely deceived even clever goal-keeper Ruyters.

Yugoslavia, always a difficult team to overcome, will have the assistance of Marinovic, recent arrival and an ex-B Grade National player in his homeland. Rezuk, of the Victorian State Squad, and Rakic, who has long been captain of J.U.S.T., all have the quality that obtains victory for their team.

Italy, which is mostly the champion side, Juventus, plus De Francesco and Gennari, of Geelong, will assure us of good football entertainment, particularly that up-and-coming young star, centre-forward Barbozza, who is not only a delight to watch, but is much to be admired, not only for his talent and ability to get goals, but also for his clever passing to a club mate and his unselfish play as a team man.

England, a name which means football of the best anywhere in the world, will have the assistance of ex-Sheffield Wednesday English League Club player, Hartley, from Hakoah, whilst his club mate, Harburn, who has represented Australia and Victoria several times, has quality and ability long admired by Victorian fans, and young Oxton, of Moreland Club, one of the finest of outside-rights playing to-day not only has speed but the power to shoot and take a snap goal, given the slightest opportunity.

Now don't forget ti-morrow, Sunday, May 17, is a must for all soccer fans at Olympic Park, Melbourne; the first kick-off, Austria v. Yugoslavia, at 1.30 p.m.; Italy v. England 3 p.m.

Second Division North Notes

After five rounds, Fiorentina and Moonee Ponds remain undefeated, but only one of these teams will be on top of the League and undefeated as they play each other in the match of the day. Both teams have been impressive in their victories to date, but Fiorentina with a 3-0 victory over I.C.I. last week, and with an excellent defence may win, even taking into consideration that it is to be played on the poor surfaced Moonee Ponds ground.

University and Essendon, the other teams in the "Four" meet in a game which has perhaps more importance attached to it than the Fiorentina and Moonee Ponds clash. Defeat to either team would make it almost impossible for them to gain promotion; whereas, the top teams who are both undefeated can afford to lose a game. University are feeling the benefit of the expert coaching of State coach Mike de Bruyckere, and with ex-Wilhelmina half-back Maassen strengthening the defence, may just win. Essendon chances are high; they are on their own ground —perhaps the best in the League —and have their skipper Matthews playing well.

Two losing teams last week—Collingwood and I.C.I.—meet at Collingwood and after Collingwood's 7-1 thrashing at the hands of University I favour the much faster I.C.I. team for victory, even though they lost 3-0 to Fiorentina.

Fairfield and St. Albans, jostling for the wooden spoon, meet at Fairfield. Both teams lost last week, and although by the odd goal on each occasion, Fairfield should win. Williamstown should have little trouble in winning their third game for the season at the expense of Heidelberg. Heidelberg had their weaknesses shown to them in their 6-1 defeat by Moonee Ponds.

—Russell Lea.

Items of Overseas Interest

By J. M. COOK

✦ Billy Walker, manager of Notts Forest, played for Aston Villa from 1919 to 1934. He made 480 appearances, represented England 17 times and gained a F.A. Cup medal.

In 1935, Billy became manager of Sheffield Wednesday, and the same season Wednesday won the F.A. Cup.

In 1938 he joined Notts Forest as manager when they were in Division 3.

✦ Luton Town reached the final of the F.A. Cup without a manager.

Since manager Dally Duncan left last season to join Blackburn, Luton have relied on captain and centre-half, Sid Owen, to carry the responsibility of the team.

Incidentally, Owen never played in any class of football until he was 25, and the game against Notts Forest was his last appearance.

✦ Notts Forest, winners of the F.A. Cup, had 5 Scots in their victorious team.

They were: Goal-keeper Thomson, left-back Joe McDonald, centre-half Bob McKinlay, and forwards John Quigley and Stuart Imlach. Luton Town's solitary Scot was Allan Brown.

✦ St. Mirren, Scottish Cup winners were a 14-1 shot with the bookmakers.

Notes

The following clubs failed to phone results of junior games on May 9th, and have been fined in accordance with Rule 31:—Williamstown Hostel, Brooklyn Hostel, Broadmeadows Hostel, Coburg United and Army Apprentices. Team managers of home teams must ensure that results are phoned as directed by the Committee.

Some teams are still failing to sign team cards before the game commences. The acting refereee must ensure that all players sign the team card before the start of every game and team cards MUST be forwarded to the Junior Secretary IMMEDIATELY after the game has finished, vide Rule 23. Disciplinary action may follow if Rule 23 is not strictly adhered to.

An under 16 SIX-A-SIDE competition will be played at Middle Park sponsored by South Melbourne United, on Queen's Birthday morning, June 15th, commencing at 9 a.m. Clubs intending to enter teams are requested to send in their entries to Mr. H. Wilkinson, 38 Grey Street, St. Kilda. A trophy and medals will be presented to the winning team.

Two teams from interstate will probably visit Melbourne during the August school holidays. Billets for the boys are urgently required. Any club or supporter of Junior Soccer who can assist, please contact either Mr. L. Young, BM5309 (Olympic Park) or the Junior Secretary, J. P. Threlfall, 3 Ferguson Street, Sunshine, W.20.

PARS FROM THE CLUBS

The State League Management Committee will meet at the V.A.-S.F.A. Offices next Tuesday, 19th inst., at 8 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Bayswater were lucky they did not have to play a stronger team than Croydon. With three of their regular men out, Bayswater played rather poor football. They were lucky to win 5-2.

★ ★ ★

George Cross is riddled with injuries. D. Catania, injured against Slavia, was kept out of two games, and P. Zammit has yet to appear with the senior team, after an injury against South Melbourne. Of the original forward line that played in the final of the "Sun" Cup only H. McVean is still holding his place.

★ ★ ★

South Yarra opened their score with a good win against Vic. Police last week. They scored first by a beautiful drive from Boudrie from 40 yards out, which went clean into the net. From then on they always looked much the stronger team, though neither of the two teams played very good football. Final score, 3-1.

★ ★ ★

A party of forty will represent Sandringham City in a visit to the Princess Theatre to see the play "Auntie Mame" on Monday, 18th May. This is the Club's first theatre night for 1959.

All George Cross players played well and as a team against such a good side as Wilhelmina. Newcomer from Malta, J. Falzon, played well and as soon as he settles down he will be a thorn in the opposing defences. Against the strong breeze, George Cross kept the ball low on the ground. Although the score of 2-0 is a good score, George Cross could have made it 4 easily. Wilhelmina played a good game and should have scored at least once.

A Quarterly meeting will be held at the Cambell Reserve Rooms on Tuesday, May 26. Please note that all financial members are required to attend because of matters of great importance to be discussed. A great number of members and supporters went down to Port Melbourne to greet two new players who arrived from Malta. The players concerned are J. Falzon who played for Hamrun Spartans; and A. Xuereb, who played for Sliema Wanderers. Both players did well in their first game, and will be an asset to the Club.

★ ★ ★

Maccabi have lost 4 out of 5 games already played. It seems that there is something wrong with the coaching. Maccabi would like to hear from any first-class coach interested to train their teams.

★ ★ ★

All players of Jewish faith wishing to play for Israel in their game against Germany please ring XJ4129 or LF 9610 (Mr. Weinberg).

South Yarra have placed Winfield on the right wing, replacing B. Bain, who has a suspected chipped bone in his wrist, injured in game against Vic. Police.

★ ★ ★

Vic. Guy one of Rosebud's vice-presidents, is ill again, and they wish him a speedy recovery from the 'flu, which is adding to his other physical troubles.

Wanted—Boat Builder, must be Soccer player. Accommodation can be obtained. Apply V. Anderson, Rosebud West, Vic.

★ ★ ★

Due to a severe case of Echo 6 Jock Hyndman, City's star half-back man, was not available for the Rosebud game. The club's player-secretary, Don. Sutherland, also suffering from influenza, made the trip to Rosebud, and filled in admirably at left-half.

★ ★ ★

After completing his 100th game for Coburg, W. Clements, the popular Association Secretary, received an injury at work which may put Bill out for the rest of the season. All the officials and players wish Bill a speedy recovery.
